THESE BRAND IDENTITY
ESSENTIALS ARE NECESSARY
FOR CREATING A COHESIVE
BRAND ACROSS ALL YOUR MARKETING CHANNELS.

Brand Identity

THE CHECKLIST

You have a logo suite consisting of primary, secondary, landmark & accent logos.

☐

You have 3-6 core brand colours that reflect your brand's personality and are used consistently across all platforms.

☐

You have a set of 2-3 fonts you use throughout your marketing materials and website that align with your brand aesthetic.

☐

You have a logo with dark and light contrast variations and a transparent background.

☐

You have a set of headshots or personal brand photos.

☐

You have a set of cohesive stock photos, videos and graphics that capture the feeling of your brand.

☐

You've created a folder of brand assets on your computer that is organized and easy to access.

☐

You've uploaded your brand assets to your favourite editing app, Canva or Photoshop.

☐

You have a collection of templates that you use to create graphics, allowing you to avoid starting from scratch while maintaining consistency.

☐

YOUR WEBSITE IS ONE OF THE BEST ASSETS IN YOUR BUSINESS FOR YOUR BRAND. KEEPING IT COHESIVE HELPS YOU CREATE AN EXPERIENCE THAT ATTRACTS YOUR IDEAL AUDIENCE.

Website Branding

THE CHECKLIST

You have a branded domain name & professional email address.

☐

Your website uses your brand colours & features your primary brand colours prominently.

☐

Your call-to-action buttons feature one of your brand colours & contrast with the site to make them easy to spot.

☐

You have set fonts (styles, sizing) for headings, subheadings, body copy & CTA's and use them consistently throughout the site.

☐

Your body copy is easy to read (not too big, not too small) & you've used script fonts very sparingly (as an accent).

☐

The images on your website are on-brand & help you visually communicate what your brand and main offer are about.

☐

You've used your headshots or personal brand photos on your About page or Work with Me page.

☐

You've resized images for the appropriate dimensions for your site, and nothing is stretched, distorted, or blurry.

☐

Your blog post graphics are on-brand & designed with a strong hook/headline to encourage clicks to the post.

☐

Your website is optimized, mobile-friendly and user-friendly.

☐
